No Going Home

Israel should not let all released Gaza terrorists go home, where they take up arms, again. Exile them, forever.

Laws exist to deal with killers
Did the crime? Time awaits
This is simple, these are pillars
On the books of many states

Gaza murderers imprisoned
Laid to waste would be more cool
Set them free defies the reason
Every day, to same cesspool

They get captured, then get walking
Swapped, released, same epilogues
Home, Hamas, resume the stalking
Wheels of war fanatic cogs

In this war it’s not the same
Peace is not what Gaza lusts
Feeding flames is insane
Letting go is so unjust

Kick them out of “Palesteena”
No homecoming for the beasts
No new trial for each hyena
Live or die upon release

Break this goddamn vicious cycle
Stop absurd, it makes no sense
Cannot have the war recycled
There have you my two cents
